

Seminar on African Development

Date & Time: 1:30- 5:30pm, Thursday, August 29th, 2019

Venue: Room 322, Research and Lecture Bldg., TUFs

In this seminar, Dzodzi Tsikata, Director, Institute of African Studies, University of Ghana, and two Ph.D. candidates of Graduate School of Global Studies – TUFs will talk about African development.

Timetable

1:30-3:00 Dzodzi Tsikata (Director, Institute of African Studies, University of Ghana)

“Can Agriculture Under Neo-liberalism Deliver Decent Livelihoods and Structural Transformation in Africa ” + Q&As

3:00-3:15 Break

3:15-5:30 Maisha Tunzine (Ph.D. candidate, Graduate School of Global Studies – TUFs)

“An overview of land rights and land conflicts in Mozambique”

Emmanuel V. N. Kallon (Ph.D. candidate, Graduate School of Global Studies– TUFs)

“Post Independence and the Foiled Political Development Take-Off in Sierra Leone, 1961-1991: A Neo-patrimonial Readings”

Prof. Tsikata

Language: English
Admission: Free
No pre-registration is needed

Supporter: African Studies Center -TUFs

[Contact]

Joint Doctoral Program for Sustainability Research (Graduate School of Global Studies Doctoral Program, TUFs)

Address) Room511, Research and Lecture Building, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies,

3-11-1, Asahi-cho, Fuchu-shi, Tokyo 183-8534

Tel & Fax) +81-42-330-5876 Email) sus_tufs@tufs.ac.jp

©H. Kirikoshi